

DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. This action is responsive to amendment filed on June 17, 2010, where Applicant amended claims 33,37,39,41,45,47,49,57 to overcome the 101 rejections and those rejections are thus withdrawn, and resubmitted the IDS with a narrowed scope which is now considered . Claims 17-64 remain pending.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
- I. Claims 17-24,33-40,49-56, drawn to email species.
 - II. Claims 25-32,41-48,57-64, drawn to document genus.
3. This application contains claims directed to the patentably distinct genus and species relationship. Group II is drawn to a genus class which is related to a general type of document with body objects. Group I is drawn to a species class which is related to a specific email type document which has body objects which are previously sent emails. The inventions are thus distinct, each from the other as they are a genus-species relationship.
4. During a telephone conversation with Michael Dunnam (reg 32611) on August 31, 2010, an election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I. Claims of Group II (the genus claims) are thus withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.
